ST. LOUIS STAKE ENTRIES.

The long delayed publication of the St. Louis stake entries has been made at last and as they break the Fair Grounds record in point of number, capital racing this year is visibly assured for the fine track across the big bridge. The Derby of 1899 has 130 entries against 149 for the Derby of this year but otherwise there is a great gain, the totals being 1,467, a gain of 260 over last year. Among the recognized good ones entered of the 3-year-olds and upward division are Satsuma, Meadowthorpe, Ulysses, Macy, Dr. Walmsley, Harry Duke, Flora Louise, Timemaker, Count of Flanders, Plaudit, Buckvidere, Dr. Sheppard, Presbyterian, Dunois, Milwaukee, Algol, What'er-Lou, Gibraltar, Lieber Karl, Greyhurst, Alleviate, Counter Tenor, Gath, Abuse, Enchanter, Imp, and others that on various occasions have made their way into prominent places in the winning division. ## GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Hickey Bros. have a two-year-old that should be able to race a bit. He is a bay colt by Tea Tray—Andelia. This mare was the dam of the very fast but erratic horse, Sunshine Whisky. Chicago turf patrons all remember this fellow. But not in all connection is the remembrance favorable.

The first race that Tod Sloan ever rode was on Lovelace at New Orleans, La., February 5, 1889. Here is its summary:

First race—Purse $125. All Ages. Selling. % mile.

Silleck (3) 104 lbs. ($600).....	Soden.....	1
Mary T (5) 100 lbs. ($200).....	Goodale.....	2
Lovelace (4) 82 lbs. ($100).....	Sloan.....	3
Gabe C (a) 82 lbs. ($100).....	Stevenson.....	4
Jim Nave (a) 90 lbs. ($600).....	Gage.....	5

Time, 1:12. Won by half a head; six lengths between second and third.

The volcanic Tod, who was in Chicago Saturday, thought that this was the race of all races which he ever rode, all his advance in experience and skill considered.

W. H. May & Son had some useful race horses last year, J. H. C., especially, and will be in the field this year with a largely increased stable, some of their 2-year-olds being very promising. Their stable list is as follows:

Joe Clark, br. h. 5, by Pirate of Penzance—Lillie B.

STAKE ENTRIES CLOSE TODAY.

A big lot of stakes, both western and eastern, close today and owners who have not already forwarded their entries, will grossly neglect their own interests if they fail to do so before tomorrow begins. Those who intend to confine their operations to the west, have a field for profitable study in the rich prizes tendered by the officials of the Oakley, Latonia and Nashville tracks, while to those who design going farther afield, the tempting stakes of the Brighton Beach Association are especially commended.

The star events are the Derbys at Oakley and Latonia, the Cumberland Prize at Nashville and the Brighton Cup at Brighton Beach. But aside from these there is not one of the lesser stakes that is not worth the most serious consideration of any turfman in the land. No one who owns a horse of established capacity as a youngster of promise can well afford to keep them out of stakes where it costs so little to enter and where the prospect of reward is so great.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

We have seen a letter from New Zealand which contained the pleasing information that the get of Foul Shot in that country are grand lookers and likely to win many good races during the racing season. This notwithstanding few of the horses are from well-bred mares. Barney Schreiber owns the Musket horse and has him at "Woodlands," Bridgeton, Mo., near St. Louis.—Breeder and Sportsman.

M. F. Dwyer was second in the list of eastern winning owners last year with $60,075 to his credit, of which Previous earned $18,845, Ben Brush $15,195 and Cleophus $10,155. Fourteen horses started in his colors during the year and were first 53 times, second 33, third 25 and 52 times unplaced.

At New Orleans, Saturday, several horses well known on Chicago tracks changed owners at auction. Lexington Pirate went to John J. McCafferty for $400; Dunster to H. H. Stover for $360; Evanatus to J. H. Smith for $430; Little Music to J. R. Hand for $200 and Little Ocean to J. H. Smith for $130.

Phil Dwyer will go south this week, stopping over in Kentucky and Hot Springs and bringing up at New Orleans. It is given out that at Lexington he will give Handspring a critical examination to determine whether or not his good horse will stand a campaign this year.

Sybaris will hereafter be allowed to start on Turf Congress tracks. He was barred on account of a change in his name, as he first started under the name of Thorpe, but Judge Murphy had the matter straightened out.

The New Western Racing Rules.

The new book of American Racing Rules, issued by Secretary Ed. C. Hopper, of the American Turf Congress, is out. It sells for 25 cents, and can be sent to any address for that price by Daily Racing Form Publishing Co.

Winner—Ch. c, by Red Iron—Lily Wright.

Start bad. Won in a hard drive. Olintus was perhaps the best. He outran and outgamed Scratch. Diggs' brother favors a route, is good and a most promising colt. Scratch was lucky and ran an improved race. He will go best in mud. Milt Young ran his race. He can do better though. Watch him. Urian and Also Ran closed ground at the end. The others were green. Scratched—Royal Fan, 115.
